

IMAGINE THE TIME

Contest for the illustration of a calendar

Tasting the nectar of the gods

* Introduction: The town of Trivignano Udinese, Councillorship for Culture, with the support of the Province of Udine and of the Region Friuli Venezia Giulia, announces the second edition of a contest for the illustration of a calendar, open to young artists of no more than 35 years of age. The contest will be followed by an exhibition and the publication of the 12 selected images.

* Finalities: Object of the contest is the illustration of the pages of a calendar. The contest intends to stimulate and help young artists that distinguished themselves for their innovative research work and for the experimentation in various languages and in various techniques of image creation.

* Theme: Tasting the nectar of the gods.

Shapes and colors that re-create the sensations experienced while sipping a glass of good wine. The memory of dainty dishes matched with the perfume and taste of the most proper wine. The pleasures of food-and-wine connoisseurship expertly transformed into images that transmit pleasant emotions throughout the year.

* Participation: The participation to the contest is free of charge. Artists of all nationalities born after December 31st 1971 and over 18 years of age are eligible to participate. Participation to the contest contemplates the acceptance of these regulations and the free surrender of the rights for reproduction and publication of the works submitted.

* Prize: 12 images will be selected for the illustration of the calendar. In addition to the gratification of seeing their works published, the authors of the 12 selected images will receive a certificate and copies of the calendar, they will also receive free hospitality during the final party and prize-giving ceremony. A popular jury will select the best among the 12 images, and the author will be awarded a prize of 1.200,00 Euro.

* Techniques: All the different techniques are accepted (graphic and/or photographic illustration, painting, drawing, collage, computer graphics, etc.) and each author may participate with a maximum number of 3 works.

* Size and medium: All the works should be cm 43 x 43 in size and should be submitted in digital format on CD-rom, each file should be in the Tiff format at 300 dpi, CMYK colour. The original works should not be mailed but may be requested by the jury for exhibition and/or reproduction purposes. For each work a reference print on A4 size paper sheet should be included. Each work should be marked by a title, without indication of the author's name.

* Copyright: The copyright of the works will remain property of the authors, but the town of Trivignano Udinese retains the right to reproduce and publish free of charge on every kind of support and media the 12 winning images, for educative, didactic, promotional and advertising purposes.

* Exhibition: The 12 winning works will be exhibited in Clauiano from Saturday September 23rd. Among the works submitted to the contest, a substantial number of images will be also selected for projection during the exhibition.

* Deadline: Before August 19th 2006 the works should arrive in a closed envelope at the following address: Comune di Trivignano Udinese, Piazza Municipio n. 5, 33050 Trivignano Udinese, Italy. The envelope must contain a CD-rom with all the works, a reference print of each work, the filled and signed participation form and a short curriculum vitae.

* Jury: President: Ferruccio Giromini (art critic and magazine director); Francesca Agostinelli (art critic and teacher); Walter Bortolossi (artist and teacher); Piermario Ciani (artist and publisher); Alessio Curto (vice-director of Juliet art magazine); Dorino Minigutti (film director); Flavia Modotto (oenologist and sommelier); Secretary: Annamaria Zuccolo (representative of the town of Trivignano).

The jury will meet on Saturday 26th August. The unappealable verdict of the jury will select the 12 images to be reproduced in the 2007 calendar and will choose the images that will be projected.

* Prize-giving ceremony: The prizes will be presented to the winners on Sunday September 24th, on the occasion of the Autumn Equinox, at the conclusion of a party that will involve the whole town of Clauiano.
